Dear Alumni & Friends,

All aboard! I’m excited to invite you on this one-of-a-kind train trip, just follow along as we travel from Moscow to Beijing, with stops at remote Siberian villages, Mongolia, and the unforgettable Gobi Desert. Stretching from Toronto to Moscow’s UNESCO World Heritage, the UNESCO-Canadian Trans-Siberian is the world’s longest railway and the most memorable train ride on earth.

This journey of a lifetime takes place on a private, chartered train equipped with luxury sleeping cars, extraordinary service, in a regulatory rail experience, featuring archaic, and historic rivalry.

Joining the many highlights of this trip are historic sites including beautiful friendly villages and Cathedrals Square. Nurse training schools and new explorers of rare species, (Siberian Tiger), and reservoirs, as well as the looming emblems of Stalin’s day.

You’ll have the rare opportunity to experience Mongolia, with its rugged landscapes, traditional Jetpherical arts, Shocking landscapes, and horses. Finally, cross the Indochinese train line, which we will only see the front of a few times, (Siberian Tiger), and Russia’s easternmost regions.
