Autumn in Provence • Burgundy • Beaujolais

Cruising the Rhône and Saône Rivers
aboard the Deluxe Small River Ship Amadeus Provence
October 31 to November 8, 2018
Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join us for this exclusive, nine-day French sojourn in Provence and the wine regions of Burgundy and Beaujolais en automne (in autumn), an exceptional time of year to visit, when woodland hillsides are crisp with auburn and the region’s famous flora is vibrant throughout the enchanting French countryside. Cruise for seven nights from historic Lyon to Provençal Arles along the fabled Rivers Rhône and Saône aboard the deluxe Amadeus Provence, launched in 2017.

During your intimate small ship cruise, dock in the heart of each port town and visit six UNESCO World Heritage sites, including the Roman city of Orange, the medieval Papal Palace of Avignon and the wonderfully preserved Roman Amphitheatre in Arles. Tour the legendary 15th-century Hôtel-Dieu in Beaune, famous for its intricate and colourful tiled roof, and picturesque Lyon, France’s gastronomique gateway. Enjoy an excursion to the Beaujolais vineyards for a private tour, world-class piano concert and wine tasting at the Château Montmelas, guided by the châtelaine, and visit the Burgundy region for an exclusive tour of Château de Rully, a medieval fortress among the vineyards which has belonged to the family of your guide, Count de Ternay, since the 12th century.

A perennial favourite, this exclusive travel program is the quintessential Provençal experience and an excellent value featuring a comprehensive itinerary through the south of France, in the peak of its autumnal glory. I encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are still available!

Sincerely,

La Beauté dans toutes les choses françaises

The Beauty in all Things French

French author Albert Camus once wrote, “Autumn is a second spring where every leaf is a flower,” evoking the incomparable amber of fall’s harvest—the cozy splendour of early November, and the French spirit—in which each object is one of beauty. Here, leaves redden like magnificent flowers, a quaint streetside café once served as Van Gogh’s muse and a medieval fortress evolves into a renowned wine estate. In autumnal Provence, all the glories of southern France, le Midi to locals, are gracefully steeped into the scenery.

These wonders await your discovery during this idyllic sojourn—on medieval bridges spanning the Rhône, in abundant Burgundy vineyards and their stately châteaux, in the enchanting quarters of Lyon and in the preservation of Provence’s extraordinary Roman ruins, where great history and beauty have been intertwined for centuries. Experience the French joie de vivre firsthand as you explore its fairy tale villages and countryside, which remain highly refined and influential cultural tastemakers across the globe.

Lyon
A UNESCO World Heritage site, the captivating city of Lyon is located at the confluence of the Rhône and Saône Rivers. From lofty Fourvière Colline (Praying Hill), enjoy views of the regal 19th-century Basilique Notre-Dame-de-Fourvière. Walk the tree-lined streets of the restored Vieux (Old) Lyon, where Gothic and Renaissance mansions attest to the wealth of Lyon’s long-standing silk industry. Stroll through the ancient quarter of Saint-Jean and explore the unique, often hidden traboules—narrow, covered pedestrian passageways.

Beaune (Burgundy)
Amidst the idyllic Burgundy countryside, visit the enchanting medieval fortress Château de Rully, nestled among Chardonnay vineyards. Count Raoul de Ternay will greet you and guide your private tour of the estate, his family’s ancestral home since the 12th century. Beaune, founded in the fifth century B.C., is the longtime capital of Burgundy wines, located in the famous Côte d’Or département. This historic city and its surrounding Burgundy terroirs, vineyards and cultural landscape comprise a UNESCO World Heritage site. Tour the legendary Burgundian Renaissance-style Hôtel-Dieu, one of the best examples of 15th-century French architecture, famous for its iconic, colourful tiled roof and once a charitable hospital.

Enjoy southern France’s autumnal charm at leisure in the historic, wine-producing town of Chalon-sur-Saône. Choose to explore lively Place Saint-Vincent, dominated by the Romanesque cathedral and lined with quaint cafés, specialty shops and local wine cellars; visit the museum dedicated to the inventor of the photograph, Joseph Nicéphore-Niépce; or stroll across the picturesque Saint-Laurent bridge.

Cluny
In Burgundy’s Saône-et-Loire département, visit the beautiful and austere remnants of the sprawling Benedictine Abbaye de Cluny (A.D. 910), one of the great centres of medieval Christianity and a fascinating glimpse of what was, until the construction of St. Peter’s in Rome, the largest Christian basilica in the world.

Beaujolais
From the lovely vineyards of Beaujolais, the “land of the golden stones,” France’s youngest and fruitiest wines are cultivated. Located along the banks of the Saône River, this internationally acclaimed wine region has been known to produce more red wine than the Burgundy vineyards of Chablis, Côte d’Or, Côte Chalonnaise and Mâconnais combined.

In the fertile heart of Beaujolais, visit the 10th-century Château de Montmelas. Châtelaine Delphine d’Harcourt will greet you on the banks of the Rhône River, Tain-l’Hermitage is renowned for its illustrious wine and chocolate production.
upon arrival and guide your exclusive tour through her home. Enjoy a private, specially arranged performance of fortepiano music by an internationally recognized pianist living in Burgundy, accompanied by a wine tasting with local canapés.

Vienne
Located at a scenic bend in the Rhône River, delightful Vienne features a trove of architectural treasures few other towns in southern France can equal. The Romans highly valued this strategically located town and endowed it with some of the finest Classical antiquities in France; amongst these are the nearly perfectly preserved Temple d'Auguste et de Livie, built in 25 B.C. in honor of Rome’s greatest emperor, and the Théâtre Romain, a beautifully restored amphitheatre at the foot of Mont Pipet, seating up to 13,000 spectators, and still in use today. The town’s most notable medieval landmark is the ornate Cathédrale de Saint-Maurice, which was constructed between the 12th and 16th centuries and combines classic Romanesque and Gothic elements.

Tournon-sur-Rhône and Tain-l’Hermitage
Facing one another across the Rhône are the twin towns of Tournon-sur-Rhône, one of France’s oldest medieval sites, and Tain-l’Hermitage, surrounded by the sweeping vineyards and granite slopes of the Hermitage appellation.

This region of the Ardèche département is said to be the birthplace of the Syrah grape variety, also known as Shiraz, and for its vineyards, that produce both red and white Hermitage, the finest and most expensive of all Côtes du Rhône wines.

In Tournon-sur-Rhône, see impressive architecture dating from the 11th, 14th and 16th centuries. Then, enjoy a specially arranged wine and chocolate tasting with a local wine expert on board the ship.

Orange
 Traverse the pastoral French countryside, passing fawn champs (fields) and vibrant stucco maisons (houses) with blue shutters, en route to Orange. Admire the Roman city’s UNESCO Word Heritage sites—visit the well-preserved ancient Roman Theatre, still hosting performances today, and see the Triumphal Arch, built in the late first century in testimony to Augustus Caesar and Roman imperial glory.

Pont du Gard
Visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Pont du Gard, an exquisitely built 2000-year-old Roman aqueduct. This masterpiece of engineering once supplied over 34 million litres of water daily and is seamlessly constructed of limestone cut to fit together without mortar, using arches to support its weight.

The first-century Pont du Gard aqueduct near Orange was built with 50,000 tonnes of soft limestone blocks.
Avignon
Built on the banks of the Rhône, the ancient city of Avignon is a UNESCO World Heritage site and was the centre of Western Christendom from when Pope Clement V moved the papal capital here in 1309, until the Great Schism with Rome in 1378. Tour the grandiose Palais des Papes (Papal Palace), the largest château-fort built in Europe during the Gothic era and the primary testament to Avignon’s golden age. Walk to the splendid Garden of the Popes and the Rocher des Doms, a hilltop park offering panoramic views of the Rhône Valley. At the river’s edge, see the remaining four arches of the Pont Saint-Bénézet (Pont d’Avignon), the only bridge built across the Rhône during the Middle Ages and an exceptional example of medieval fortifications.

Arles
This archetypal Provençal city, home to one of the most majestic collections of UNESCO World Heritage-designated Roman monuments, is unmatchable in joie de vivre. Visit the magnificently restored 20,000-spectator, first-century B.C. Amphitheatre and the 12th-century Église Saint-Trophime, a former cathedral known for its Last Judgment-themed portal, a fascinating example of Romanesque sculpture. Nearby on the Place du Forum, the restaurant in Van Gogh’s 1888 painting, The Café Terrace at Night, is still open to the public.

The meticulous crafting of the deluxe Amadeus Provence, launched in 2017, sets new standards in design and technology and features the comforts of a refined and traditional hotel. The 70 stylish Staterooms and Suites are among the most spacious of any European river ship (16 to 26 square metres). Suites include a private balcony, and select Staterooms feature a unique floor-to-ceiling window that can become a French balcony at the touch of a button. Accommodations have two twin beds or one queen-size bed, individual climate control, sitting area and private bathroom with shower.

The delightful restaurant offers scenic views through panoramic windows as well as continental cuisine featuring fresh, local ingredients. Daily meals include early-risers’ coffee, buffet breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea, four-course dinner with complimentary wine and beer, and late-evening snack.

For your leisure time on board there is complimentary Wi-Fi, two bars, an open-air lounge, beauty salon, boutique, massage room, fitness studio, outdoor pool and Sun Deck. An elevator serves all passenger decks except the Sun Deck. There is no doctor on board.

The Amadeus Fleet has been awarded the “Green Certificate” of environmental preservation.

Arles’ Romanesque architecture reflects its history as a vital port on the Roman road from Italy to Spain.

Geneva and the French Alps
Pre-Cruise Option
Delight in the mountainous beauty of the Savoie Mont-Blanc region where France, Switzerland and Italy converge. Visit the world-class city of Geneva, ideally located on the crystalline shores of Lake Geneva, the largest lake on the course of the Rhône and fed by the waters flowing down through the valleys of the Swiss Alps. Enjoy a specially arranged tour of the interior chambers of the Palais des Nations, a United Nations headquarters; and explore the picturesque French village of Chamonix, the historic capital of alpine skiing and host of the first Winter Olympic Games in 1924. Accommodations are for three nights in the deluxe, centrally located Hotel Bristol Geneve.

Palette of Provence
Post-Cruise Option
Discover the beautiful, medieval city of Aix-en-Provence, located in the heart of France’s golden Provençal region and which perhaps captures best the quintessential élan of all that is Provence. Walk in the footsteps of Paul Cézanne and discover the rich history, renowned cuisine and vibrant culture of Aix. Visit one of the colourful daily markets, stroll through the Mazarin district and old Aix and enjoy lunch in the city’s oldest café on the famous Cours Mirabeau, a classic, grand boulevard lined with plane trees and elegant 17th- and 18th-century townhouses. Accommodations for two nights are in the ideally located, deluxe Grand Hôtel Roi René.

The Pre- and Post-Cruise Options are available at additional cost. Details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.

Aix’s colourful market brings the sights, aromas and flavours from Provence’s fields and orchards to the community.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND BINDING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: Thomas P. Gohagan & Company, the sponsoring associations/organizations, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assign(s) (collectively “Gohagan”), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example lodging facilities, airline, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or service providers, local ground operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service or entertainment providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity or of any other third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services resulting from weather conditions, acts of God or force majeure, acts of government, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, strikes or other labour activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof, sickness, illness, epidemics or the threat thereof, the lack of availability or access to medical treatment or the threat thereof, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation, or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely.

If due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner’s risk. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a trip participant, or remove from a trip, without permission, any person Gohagan judges to be incapable of meeting the rigours and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders or third parties, or who Gohagan determines to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel or cruise line.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Ship schedules, port calls, hours of operation, and other events of force majeure, mechanical or other conditions beyond the control of Gohagan are waiving the right to a trial by jury.

Any dispute concerning, relating or referring to this Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement, shall be finally resolved by binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. Sections 1-16, according to the then existing Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or pursuant to the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (JAMS). Such proceedings will be governed by substantive (but not procedural) Illinois law and will take place in Chicago, IL. The arbitrator and not any federal, state, or local court or agency will have final authority to interpret and apply the terms of this Agreement. All decisions of the arbitrator are final, and upon the conclusion of the arbitration, the proceedings, the participant and Gohagan are waiving the right to a trial by jury.

Any notice or demand required or permitted under this Agreement that is to be given or delivered to Gohagan must be delivered by registered or certified mail, postage paid, return receipt requested, to Thomas P. Gohagan & Company, 110 Science Place, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, SK S7N 5C9, CANADA. Any notice or demand required or permitted under this Agreement that is to be given or delivered to a participant must be delivered by registered or certified mail, postage paid, return receipt requested, to the participant at the address appearing on the Participant’s Application. If such address is not listed in the “Included Features” section of the brochure; transfers and baggage handling to/from airport/hotel/ship on day(s) of arrival and/or departure if you are arriving earlier than or later than and/or departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s); any overnight on land due to flight schedule(s); meals, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services and goods not specifically mentioned in the “Included Features” section.

AIRFARE: Airfare is subject to change and availability and, depending on the fare basis, likely is subject to refund. If group airfare is purchased, Gohagan constitutes a contract between you and the airline, even if purchased through Gohagan.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without notice.

PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance (for example, the need for a wheelchair) must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Travellers must be able to embark and disembark motorcoaches and/or cruise vessels, maintain balance while walking from your travelling companion and climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. Travellers requiring assistance must travel with a companion who will be responsible for physical assistance.

DISCOUNTED RESERVATIONS: Discounts apply only to those reservations received for a group program offered Gohagan in writing, accompanied by the required deposit. By April 24, 2018. In the event a “discounted” reservation must be cancelled, no “replacement” reservation can be substituted at the discounted rate. A “replacement” reservation is a new reservation and can be substituted only at the full-fare tariff. Cancellation penalties may apply.

CANCELLATIONS: Cancellations for all or any part of the trip including Pre/Post Program(s)’ reservation(s) will not be effective until received in writing in the offices of Gohagan. Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply: reservation cancellation(s) are subject to a $250 USD ($50 USD Pre/Post Program(s)) per person administrative fee from the time of booking through 121 days prior to departure; from 95 through 120 days prior to departure, 60% of the published full regular tariffs; from 45 through 60 days prior to departure, 55% of the published full regular tariffs; from 22 through 44 days prior to departure, 50% of the published full regular tariffs; cancellations 21 days or less prior to departure, a no-show, or early return from the trip will result in forfeiture of 100% of the published full regular tariffs. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees, optional excursions cancellation fees and administrative fees may apply.

RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change at any time. On land and/or cruise programs after full payment, Gohagan reserves the right to increase the tour price in the event of changes in fuel costs, currency fluctuations or fuel or energy surcharges and all such increases are to be paid to Gohagan upon notice to the trip participant of such increases. On programs which include Gohagan travel insurance, a refund of any pre-paying the applicable insurance premium which cancels or returns to the United States), no increased costs will be passed on after final payment except for services not specifically mentioned or damaged and lost baggage. We will send you an application upon receipt of your registration.

BINDER ARBITRATION: Any dispute concerning, relating or referring to Pre/Post Program(s)’ reservation(s) will not be effective until received in trip itself, shall be resolved exclusively by binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. Sections 1-16, according to the then existing Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or pursuant to the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (JAMS). Such proceedings will be governed by substantive (but not procedural) Illinois law and will take place in Chicago, IL. The arbitrator and not any federal, state, or local court or agency will have final authority to interpret and apply the terms of this Agreement. All decisions of the arbitrator are final, and upon the conclusion of the arbitration, the proceedings, the participant and Gohagan are waiving the right to a trial by jury.

ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she does not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that would create a hazard for him/herself or other participants and accepts the terms contained in this Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement.
